3.3 The Filing Fee shall be in such amount as prescribed in the Fee Schedule.

4. Date of Mediation

4.1 Subject to Rule 4.4, as soon as practicable after SMC receives full payment of the Filing Fee from all of the Parties in accordance with Rule 3 ("Filing Fee Receipt Date"), SMC shall fix the date for the conduct of the Mediation, in consultation with the Parties.

4.2 Where the Parties have themselves selected the mediator for the Mediation, the Parties' proposed date(s) of the Mediation shall be confirmed by SMC upon the agreement of the Parties and the Party-Selected Mediator.

4.3 Subject to Rules 4.5 and 9.6, the Mediation shall be conducted on the Mediation Date.

4.4 If SMC is unable to fix the date for the conduct of the Mediation by the expiry of 45 days from the Filing Fee Receipt Date, SMC shall be entitled (but not obliged) to terminate the Services and cease all further action in relation to the Mediation.

- 5.2 Where the Parties have themselves selected the Party-Selected Mediator, SMC shall appoint the Party-Selected Mediator as the Mediator.
- 5.3 Where the Parties have not selected the mediator for the Mediation or cannot mutually agree on the mediator to be appointed, SMC shall select and appoint one or more persons to be the Mediator. If the Parties have any criteria for the choice of mediator, they should indicate such criteria to SMC as promptly as possible and SMC may take them into consideration, but the selection and appointment of the Mediator shall be at SMC's sole and absolute discretion.
- 5.4 The Mediator, if he is not a Party-Selected Mediator, shall abide by these Rules, including the Fee Schedule and the Code of Conduct. If the Mediator is a Party-Selected Mediator, he shall abide by these Rules (including the Code of Conduct but excluding the Fee Schedule) and the quotation or statement of his fees that he has submitted to or agreed with SMC.

6. Replacement of Mediator

- 6.1 If a Mediator resigns from his appointment before the Mediation Date or is for any reason unwilling or unable to conduct the Mediation on the Mediation Date, the following provisions shall apply:

already another Mediator who has been appointed and who is able and willing to conduct the Mediation on the Mediation Date.

- 6.2 In any event, where a Mediator is not a Party-Selected Mediator, SMC shall be entitled, without giving any reasons to the Parties, to terminate the appointment of that Mediator at any time. SMC shall select and appoint another mediator to replace the Mediator whose appointment has been terminated, but is not obliged to do so if there is a remaining Mediator who is able and willing to conduct the Mediation.
- 6.3 References in these Rules to “Mediator” shall include a mediator who is appointed pursuant to this Rule 6.

- 7.2 The Agreement to Mediate may take the form of an electronic record and may be signed by the Parties, the Mediator and SMC by applying their respective electronic signatures, and may be so signed in any number of counterparts, all of which taken together and when delivered to one another, including by scanned electronic copies, shall constitute one and the same document.
- 7.3 If the Online Platform is available for use at the time when the Agreement to Mediate is to be entered into, the Agreement to Mediate shall be signed and submitted to SMC using the Online Platform, unless otherwise required by SMC.

 - (b) Mediation Documents that the Party wishes to rely on at the Mediation.
- 8.2 A Party may submit only to the Mediator any information which that Party does not wish to disclose to the other Party (“Private Information”). - 8.3 Where the Case Summary and Mediation Documents (together with the Private Information, if any) are submitted in the form of an electronic record, they shall not exceed in the aggregate 10 MB in file size.

9. Mediation Fee and Additional Charges

9.1 In addition to the Filing Fee, each Party shall pay to SMC a Mediation Fee for the Mediation as follows:

(a) where the Mediator is a Party-Selected Mediator, the Mediation Fee shall be in an amount as notified by SMC to the Parties.

(b) where the Mediator is not a Party-Selected Mediator, the Mediation Fee shall be in an amount as prescribed in the Fee Schedule and notified by SMC to the Parties.

9.2 The amount of the Mediation Fee as prescribed in the Fee Schedule is based on the total amount of the dispute between the Parties ("Dispute Amount") as determined by SMC. The Dispute Amount shall be determined by SMC as follows:

(a) the Dispute Amount shall be the aggregate amount of all of the claims and counterclaims of the Parties forming the subject matter of the Mediation.

(b) in determining the Dispute Amount, SMC shall have regard to the nature of the claims and counterclaims and the reliefs sought, including the amounts of all claims and counterclaims which are quantified by the Parties.

(c) in this regard, SMC may determine the Dispute Amount on the basis of the Request, as well as information provided in the Case Summary and the Mediation Documents provided by the respective Parties.

(d) SMC may also determine the Dispute Amount from information requested from and/or provided by the Mediator with regard to the amounts of the claims and counterclaims of the Parties disclosed during the Mediation. Notwithstanding Rule 14.3, the Mediator shall be entitled to disclose and provide such information to SMC either on his own initiative or at the request of SMC and, without prejudice to Rule 14.5, SMC shall be entitled to request and/or receive such information from the Mediator.

9.3 Each Party shall also pay to SMC the Additional Charges where applicable.

9.4 The Mediation Fee and the Additional Charges shall be paid by the Parties to SMC at such time as SMC may specify.

9.5 The Parties shall also pay to SMC, at such time as SMC may specify, such deposits to account of the Mediation Fee and/or the Additional Charges as may from time to time be required by SMC.

- 9.6 If the Parties or any of them shall fail to pay any amount to SMC as required under this Rule 9, SMC shall be entitled (but not obliged) to:
- (a) re-fix the date for the conduct of the Mediation until after that amount has been paid in full to SMC, in which event the Mediation shall be conducted on the date so re-fixed by SMC, and references in these Rules to the "Mediation Date" shall be references to the date so re-fixed by SMC; or
 - (b) terminate the Services and cease all further action in relation to the Mediation. Such termination shall be without prejudice to the liability of the Parties to pay such fees, charges and expenses that have already accrued due to SMC or which have already been incurred by SMC at the time of termination of the Services. Unless otherwise provided in the Rules, such fees, charges and expenses shall be borne and paid by the Parties in equal proportions.
- 9.7 If there is any inconsistency between the provisions of this Rule 9 and those of the Fee Schedule, the provisions of the Fee Schedule shall prevail.

10. Conduct of Mediation

- 10.1 Parties who are individual persons or unincorporated entities should attend the Mediation in person. Parties who are companies or incorporated entities may appoint duly authorised representatives to attend the Mediation. - (a) SMC shall implement, and the Parties, their representatives and the Mediator shall observe, comply with and abide by, all measures and requirements as are prescribed by or under the laws of Singapore or any rules and guidelines promulgated or issued by the relevant authorities in relation to the prevailing public health situation (collectively "Health Measures");

- (a) to ensure the confidentiality of the Mediation, SMC shall restrict attendance at the Mediation to counsel or representatives who are notified in writing to SMC at least 5 days prior to the commencement of the mediation session ("Authorised Participants"). - 13.4 The Mediator may (but is not obliged to) assist the Parties in drawing up or preparing the Settlement Agreement or express his views on its terms, but the Mediator bears no responsibility and shall incur no liability for having (or not having) done so. It is for the Parties to seek and obtain independent legal advice to ensure the efficacy and enforceability of the Settlement Agreement and to otherwise address their own interests.

14. Confidentiality

- 14.1 The provisions contained in this Rule are to be read in conjunction with the Mediation Act, and in particular sections 9, 10 and 11 of the Mediation Act.
- 14.2 The Mediation shall be conducted in confidence and on a without-prejudice basis. No transcript or formal record will be made, and none of the Parties shall make any audio or video recording, or take photographs of the mediation proceedings.

- 14.5 SMC is not to be regarded as a third party to the Mediation. SMC is entitled to obtain, receive and otherwise gain access to any information regarding anything said or done, or any document prepared, or any information provided for the purposes of or in the course of the Mediation, including any Settlement Agreement and its terms. The Mediator shall be at liberty to disclose to SMC (and its officers and employees) the progress, status and outcome of the Mediation, including the making of any Settlement Agreement and its terms.
- 14.6 Notwithstanding the provisions of this Rule 14, where the Mediation is referred to SMC or conducted under any Mediation Service or Dispute Resolution Scheme of which SMC is an administrator, SMC shall be at liberty to disclose to any other administrator of the Mediation Service or Dispute Resolution Scheme, or to the relevant authority or organisation (if any) by or for whom the Mediation Service or Dispute Resolution Scheme is established, the progress, status and outcome of the Mediation, including the making of any Settlement Agreement.

15. Stay of proceedings

- 15.1 Unless the Parties agree otherwise, but subject to the Mediation Act, the Mediation shall not preclude any Party from commencing any legal proceedings or arbitration against any other Party.

15.2 Where legal proceedings or arbitration have already been commenced, the Mediation shall not operate as a stay of such proceedings or arbitration unless a court or arbitral tribunal, as the case may be, orders otherwise.

16.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the Services shall not include the provision of any legal advice nor the interpretation of any legislation or statutory provision.

16.3 Where any Rule refers to a period of time within which any act is to be done or any event is to occur, SMC may at its sole discretion (but subject always to any agreement by which the Parties are bound under which that act is to be done or that event is to occur within a certain period or by a certain date) extend that period or date. Subject always to such agreement, where SMC has extended such a period or date referred to in a Rule, that Rule shall apply as if the period or date referred to in that Rule is replaced by the period or date so extended by SMC.

17. Exclusion of Liability

17.1 The Parties, whether singly or jointly, shall not make any claim against the Mediator and/or SMC (or any of its officers and employees) for any matter in connection with or in relation to or arising from:
